BIG POSTAL RECORD.

Tremendous Amount of Labor Involved in Fight for Congress

REGULAR FORCE HANDLED ALL.

Hundreds of Thousands of Pieces of Mail Sent Out by Rival Candidates Swells Reports of Towanda Office—Well Organized Force.

Friday last the business of the Towanda postoffice reached high water mark, the amount of mail despatched on that day being the largest in the history of the office. The stream of political matter which had been steadily growing in volume for several weeks on that day became an overwhelming flood which at times swamped the office. In addition to the usual mail handled that day there was the output of the three Towanda printing offices—which sent to the postoffice that day nearly 25,000 newspapers, the major part in single wrappers, and the combined product of the two literary bureaus employing 30 girls day and night. To this should be added extra editions of two Sayre and one Athens newspapers. The total number pieces of mail handled (outside the regular mail) was not less than 60,000. During that day and evening there was despatched from the postoffice to the several railway depots 130 sacks of mail. This does not include the mail sent over the nine rural routes nor that dispatched through the Towanda office and by city carriers. All these channels for distributing mail were swollen far beyond their usual proportions. Oct. 28 was another big day. On the night mail sacks crammed with political mail trains of that day 70 large canvas literature were despatched over the L. V. R. R. alone.

On the big Friday every piece of mail sent to the office had either been despatched or was in sacks ready for mailing before 10 o'clock that night.

Perfect System Demonstrated.

The amount of labor involved in the task of sorting, stamp canceling, tieing out and throwing so large an amount of mail is little comprehended by those unacquainted with the work. It was tremendous; but so well was the work systematized and so rapidly was it done that there was little or no delay in its despatch, although performed under the rule which restricts such labor to the sworn force of the postal service.

$1,000 Worth of One Cent Stamps.

The large amount of mail matter sent out from the Towanda office during the campaign increased largely the sale of postage stamps, more than 100,000 of the one cent denomination alone being disposed of during October. More would have been sold if they could have been obtained in time.

Pleased Postmaster.

Postmaster Turner expresses himself as more than gratified by the willing and efficient service rendered by the whole postoffice force and by Railway Mail Clerks Myer and White, who assisted at times when need was greatest, during the trying and laborious days of the campaign just ended.

DEAD MAN WINS DEAD DISTRICT.

Unique Sensational Election Result in Lancaster County.

The election returns showed the election of John R. Bricker, a dead man, as senator in what was formerly known as the Fourteenth senatorial district in Lancaster county, against P. W. Baker. He was nominated by the Lincoln Republicans.

The organization Republicans made no nomination for the office because, in the recent senatorial apportionment the old district was attached to Lebanon county. Mr. Bricker died after the official ballot.

A certificate canot be issued to a dead man, and the intention of contesting the sensatorial apportionment as to that county will be abandoned.

McNeal—Brignell.

A marriage which was quite a surprise to their Towanda friends took place in Geneva on Oct. 27, when Mrs. Eliza Brignell of that place, a cousin of Mrs. Frank M. Huggins of Towanda, was united in marriage to Charles McNeal of Towanda, a well known young man. The couple will reside in Geneva this Winter and next Spring will come to Towanda, where Mr. McNeal is preparing a beautiful home on Thomas street.

Aldrich—Dougherty.

On Oct. 11, at Lebanon, Pa., Willis Moorse Aldrich, formerly of Towanda, and Miss Dolores E. Dougherty of Rummerfield, were united in marriage. The ceremony was performed by Rev. F. F. Pond, pastor of the Centenary M. E. church. Mr. Aldrich is the son of B. W. Aldrich of Towanda.

BRADFORD COUNTY TEACHERS TO ENJOY FINE TRIP.

Cheap and Convenient Arrangements for Washington Excursion.

From Principal Humphries it is learned that the teachers' excursion to Washington will now be an assured fact, and arrangements are being completed for making the trip, the date being fixed for Monday, Dec. 17. The excursion is open for all who wish to take advantage of the low rate, and convenient arrangements.

This plan is one started by and for the teachers of Bradford county, but has been enlarged to take in all who desire to go. The rate for tickets to Washington and return, good for ten days, has been made $7.40, with stop-over privileges as desired on the return trip. Hotel rates of from $1.25 to $2 per day have been secured, and for those who do not care to go to the hotels a list of reliable boarding places is available. It is estimated that the entire trip for the week may be made comfortably at a total cost of from $15 to $20.

A special train in charge of a special agent will leave Towanda about 9 o'clock a. m., on Dec. 17, arriving at Washington at about 7:30 p. m. If a sufficient number return Saturday night, a special train will be provided, but there are no compulsory restrictions. All who desire to be members of this party should send their names to Principal Humphries, Towanda, who will gladly answer any inquiries.

CHOIRS INSTALLED.

Impressive Ceremony But Seldom Witnessed in This Section.

The two choirs of the Church of the Redeemer of Sayre, were installed Wednesday evening and the service was a unique one, nothing of the kind ever having occurred in this section of the country before.

The church has two choirs, one composed of 24 children and this choir will furnish the music for Friday evening services. The other choir is composed of 30 adults under the leadership of John Jolls and this choir furnishes the music at the Sunday services. At the installation service the choir entered the church auditorium singing the processional and followed by Rev. H. E. Hanna, rector of the church, Rev. Mr. Daw of Athens, and Rev. T. Crydenwise of Waverly. The children's choir was attired in unique vestments and the adult choir was vested in cassoes. The choirs were first seated in the front of the church and then Rev. Mr. Hanna delivered an address to them, telling them of their duty as choiristers. His sermon was impressive. He showed the choirs clearly that they owed a duty to the church and should use their voices, God given, to assist in the service rendered for God's glory. Following the sermon the members of the choirs pledged themselves to be faithful members of the choirs and then the children entered the sanctuary. Before the adult members assumed their places in the choir stalls, they donned their cottas.—Athens News.

ENCOURAGE CORN WITH CASH.

Annual Corn Show This Winter Gives Good Prizes.

The Pennsylvania Live Stock Breeders' association announces that one of the features of its annual meeting at Harrisburg, Jan. 22-25, 1907, is a corn show open to all corn growers of the state, whether they are members of the association or not. Liberal prizes are offered for corn, ten ears of which will constitute an exhibit, and these prizes are in cash. The National Stockman and Farmer, of Pittsburg, has contributed $100 in cash to encourage this exhibit and to this the association and the association and the State Department of agriculture will add enough to make the prizes worth competing for. There will be 45 cash prizes, besides specials.

This is Pennsylvania's first great corn show, and it should bring out a big lot of fine grain, some of which may later be used in exhibits at Jamestown or other expositions. Every corn grower who can find ten ears of choice corn when he goes to husk it has a whack at the money. He should write at once to E. S. Bayard, secretary, 203 Shady avenue, East End, Pittsburg, for particulars and enroll himself as a contestant. A postal card will do it. Prize list will be forwarded on application to the secretary.

Same Old "Unloaded" Gun.

While several young boys were hunting on Monday near North Orwell the oft repeated and seemingly inevitable accident hapened. A rifle in the hands of one of the party was snapped while it was supposed to have been unloaded. The ball which was in the "unloaded" weapon went through the right foot of Frank Rockwell, son of Melvin Rockwell, inflicting a painful, though not necessarily serious wound. Dr. William Rice of Rome, dressed the injury, and the young man is reported as resting as comfortably as possible under the circumstances.

UNIFORM PRIMARIES.

Will Become Operative Before the February Elections.

HOW THE LAW WILL WORK.

All Parties Will Select Candidates at the Same Time and Nominations Must Be Made Early—New Plan Will Make Much Extra Work.

The uniform primary law is now in operation in every election district in the state.

With the uniform primaries in force, the time honored county convention is a thing of the past. Slate making by political bosses becomes exceedingly difficult if not impossible. The law was framed with th eobject in view of affording the people means for determining for themselves who shall be their candidates. The holding of such primaries to choose candidates to be voted for the February election will mark the first practical test of the new law in the city and also in the state at large.

Date for Election.

The uniform primary law was one of the sevral election reform measures passed at the special session of the legislature. It provides that there shall be two primary elctions held each year. For the coming February election the primary shall be held on the fourth Saturday preceding election day, which will be Jan. 26. For November elections the primary shall be held on the first Saturday in June, except when a president is to be elected, when the primary shall be held on the second Saturday in April. That for February elections is termed the Winter primary, and for the November elections, the Spring primary.

Heretofore the several parties have held their primaries on separate days. Under the new law one primary will be held for all parties, between the hours of 2 o'clock and 8 o'clock p. m. The primary will be held at the regular election polling place in each district or dvision, as it is termed in Philadelphia, and will be conducted by the regular election officers.

How the Law Works.

In the first place, any number of persons may be voted for at the primary for an office to be filled at the next succeeding election. The law provides that there shall be an official ballot for the primary. This will be alike in size and color for all parties. All official ballots will be printed on white paper. Each party will, however, have its own ballot. At the top of each ballot there will be found a printed line designating which party it is for, and full explanation as to how to properly mark the same.

If a candidate for mayor, for instance, desires his name printed on the Republican primary ballot, this will be done upon the filing of a petition with the county commissioners signed by 50 Republicans. If a Democrat wishes his name printed on the Democratic primary ballot as a candidate for mayor he may have this done by having a petition signed by 50 Democrats. Likewise with a Prohibitionist, a City party man, a Lincoln party man, or a member of any other regularly constituted party.

Must File Names Early.

These petitions must be filed with the county commissioners at least three weeks prior to the primary, or in this instance, not later than Jan. 5. At least once each week during these three weeks the county commissioners must advertise in two newspapers within the county the names of all offices for which nominations are to be made. At the expiration of the time fixed by law for receiving petitions the county commissioners are required to take those in hand and proceed to the preparation of the ballot for each party. After these are prepared they must be kept on file and open to public inspection in the commissioners' office for at least one week preceding the primary.

When the voter goes to the primary on Jan. 26, he must ask for the ballot of his party. Unless his right to participate is challenged he will be handed a ballot, where he will find printed the names of all candidates arranged in alphabetical order under the respective offices.—Philadelphia Press.

Senior Class Entertainment.

The members of the senior class of the Towanda High school are preparing to give a musical entertainment Friday evening of this week, in the hall of the school building. At that time several of Towanda's talented vocalists and those accomplished in other lines of entertainment will be heard and seen, for a small sum, the proceeds to be devoted to the needs of the senior class.

Surveying Near Rome.

The engineering corps of the P., B. and E. railroad have been engaged for nearly a week past in surveying on the line near Rome.

AN ANCIENT CEREMONIAL REPEATED IN TOWANDA.

Italian Colony Witnesses Pretty Baptismal Here Sunday.

In connection with the baptism of an infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Poalo Scudiere, one of the local Italian colony, several interesting and unique customs and traditions of this people were carried out just as they would be in any of the provinces of Italy.

Among these people the baptism of a child and the incidental festivities is made more of an event than the birth of a child; invitations are sent out, and great preparations are made for the enjoyment of the invited guests. In some instances the celebration lasts several days.

The sponsor for last Sunday's christening arrived from Williamsport, on the morning train accompanied by a large number of relatives and on reaching the house sat down to a sumptuous dinner, served according to the Italian cruisine. Macaroni, the real article was there in abundance, one of its uses seeming to be that of confetti. When the dinner was finished the child was dressed by the woman who was to act as god mother, and, according, to the ancient custom, the godmother furnished the baptismal robes. These included the little shoes, the dress, the dainty baby ribbons, and even the tiny ring used in the ceremony.

When the baby was dressed, after much merriment, the entire party were driven to SS. Peter and Paul's Church, where the religious ceremony was performed by the Rev. Father Boland. Returning to the house, the festivities were resumed and continued until a late hour. On these occasions, open house is maintained by the parents, and friends and neighbors all are welcome to the generous refreshments provided, in their own peculiar way, the Italians are one of the most domestic of peoples.

STATE D. A. R. MEETING.

Mrs. J. W. Codding of Towanda, to Read Report.

Fired with patriotic ardor and anxious to heap up tributes to the memory of their liberty-loving ancestors, many Daughters of the American Revolution meet Tuesday in an anual state conference at Clearfield. One of the largest and most important meetings in the history of the society is expected. Prominent women from all parts of the state will read reports and advance plans to preserve the patriotic spirit. Flags, bunting, badges and other exterior devives will help to put the women in an heroic frame of mind, and natioanl songs will be interspersed with the reading of reports.

Mrs. John W. Codding of Towanda, represents the George Clymer Chapter, and will give a report of the work done here.

Did Not Cost Much.

That one of the best ways to purify politics is to nominate good men was again demonstrated Monday, when Representatives-elect Dr. C. L. Stevens and Hon. George Moscrip filed their election expenses. Both men swore that they spent less than $50, and this amount was mostly in traveling about the county. One of the candidates, indeed, declared that he did not spend any money. The names of both of these men were put up by the Republicans and endorsed by the Democrats.

An Old Towanda Safe.

Officers of the Farmers' National bank of Athens, have been waiting a week while experts worked at the lock of the old safe, in which were deposited valuable papers. The safe is a Herring-Farrell model; and was formerly a fixture in M. C. Mercur's bank in this place. Safe experts from New York had to come to Athens and strip the front door of the old safe.

Returned to Assembly.

George L. Baldwin, son of O. A. Baldwin, of Towanda, has been re-elected to the New York state assembly, from Onondaga county to represent one of the Syracuse city districts. Mr. Baldwin, who has been in Syracuse for some years, has been prominent in politics, and is making a splendid record at Albany in the legislature.

Gone to Wyoming.

Miss Bertha M. Horton of North Towanda, for some time one of Bradford county's best known and most painstaking teachers, left on Saturday of last week for Basin, Wyo., where she will engage in the same work. The best wishes of a number of friends will follow her to her far Western post.

At the meeting of the Bradford County Educational society, held in Sayre on Saturday last, much in the way of a closer and more helpful organization was accomplished. In addition to the valuable educational work that was taken up in the lectures,, addresses and discussions, there was formed a Bradford County Interscholastic league, and a constitution and by-laws were adopted.

Principal Humphries was the Towanda delegate to the regular convention, and Captain David Smith, of the High school foot ball team was the delegate from here to the Interscholastic league meeting. A permanent organization was effected, officers being elected from among the delegates present, and a committee appointed to make plans for the holding of athletic contests. It is planned to hold a regular meet in the Spring.

ANOTHER HORSE THIEF HERE.

Reward for Samuel Hymon, Who Took Elmira Junk Dealer's Rig.

In deep distress, Solomon Levine, a Hebrew junk dealer, from Elmira, called at Constable G. C. Hollon's office Thursday afternoon, and said he desired aid in tracing his horse which had been taken on election day by Solomon Hymon, another Hebrew, who had started to go on a collecting trip to Breesport. Hymon did not return, and Levine is of the opinion that his rig has been stolen. The man and the rig were seen in Towanda Wednesday.

The alleged thief is described as a man of about 30 years old, with light hair and a heavy sandy moustache, height about five feet six inches and speaking broken English. The horse was a bay, with a short, sparse tail, and was hitched to a democrat wagon, which had a double or extra rear spring. Levine offers $10 reward for the capture of his former employe, and the return of his property. Chief Miller or G. C. Hollon may be notified by any one having information upon the subject.

New Supervisor.

William D. Brearley was Friday appointed by Judge Fanning to the office of supervisor in Warren township in place of Dana A. Abell, whose resignation is accepted.

WORK FOR THOUSANDS OF RAILROAD MEN.

To Complete Construction of Western Pacific, Across Continent.

A further evidence of the general prosperity of the country comes close home. It is learned that an effort will be made among the railroad men in this section to secure a large number of employes to go West to join the forces of the Western Pacific, building a transcontinental line.

Eight thousand men are needed immediately to assist in the construction of the Western Pacific, which is to form an important trans-continental system.

Some time ago the passenger agents were instructed to assist in securing workmen and at that time it was announced that 5,000 men were wanted. This number has been increased by 3,000 and the demand for workmen on other lines being built in the West is also increasing. Construction work is being delayed by the car shortage. Little material is being delivered, and it is feared that the scarcity of workmen and the shortage of cars will delay the construction of the Western Pacific more than one year.

New Amusement in Towanda.

Towanda people who are looking for a new amusement will find one in the box ball alleys which have recently been set up in the vacant rooms formerly occupied by C. P. Vosburg's barber shop. Two alleys were brought here from Canton where they were run for some time by H. Wheeler and his brother F. E. Wheeler of Elmira, will take charge of them here. The alleys are 36 feet long, similar to ten pins and te game consists of knocking down the paddles with numbers attached, 30 throws, three balls at a time is given each person and the one having the highest number winning the game.

Awakening in China.

The lecture given in the Presbyterian church last evening by the Rev. J. A. Fitch of the Wei Eschen mission, in China, was well attended and was an interesting and instructive event not only for those interested in missions, but for all others. Having been on the ground, the clergyman was able to speak authoritively; he states that China is awakening from a sleep of centuries and promises wonderful development soon. The spread of the Christian religion may be said to be the most potent influence for good that has yet touched the great country.

Economizing in Luzerne.

From the first Monday in January the cost of feeding prisoners in the Lackawanna county prison will be reduced from 25 cents to 14 cents per prisoner. This reduction was made compulsory in the court at the solicitation of the county commissioners and the county controller, who claimed that the sheriff was receiving too much for feeding prisoners.

The heater that costs least per month

The Art Andes Heater

This heater is so easily regulated, so correctly planned and so well constructed that it will burn less fuel for every degree that the heat is raised in your room than any other parlor heater.

The Art Andes is a base-burner, made in two sizes, and each size may be made a Double Heater. Grate is duplex, and all parts are made very heavy, insuring a tight, durable heater.

All nickeled parts may be easily and readily removed when desired. We show also Andes Oak Heaters and Andes Ranges—all with the same efficiency in their fields that the Art Andes has in its field.

We would be pleased to have you call at our store—looking places you under no obligation whatever.

The Ideal Family Laxative.

is one that can be used by the entire family, young and old, weak and strong, without any danger of harmful effects. It should have properties which insure the same dose, always having the same effect, otherwise the quantity will have to be increased and finally lose its effect altogether. These properties can be found in that old family remeuy. Brandreth s Pills, because its ingredients are of the purest herbal extracts, and every pill is kept for three years before being sold, which allows them to mellow. We do not believe there is a laxative on the market that is so carefully made.

Brandreth's Pills are the same fine laxative tonic pill your grandparents used. They have been in use for over a century and are sold in every drug and medicine store, either plain or sugar-coated.

RESOLUTIONS OF RESPECT.

Testimonial to the Character and Worth of Hon. C. S. Russell.

At a meeting of the board of directors of the First National bank the following resolutions on the death of Hon. Chauncey S. Russell were unanimously adopted:

It is with sorrow that we are once more called upon to chronicle the sad fact that death has again invaded our number.

Chauncey S. Russell was identified with the early history of this bank, and for many years was an active and influential member of its board of directors, and contributed much to the early development and upbuilding of the First National bank of Towanda. In the seventies he retired from the board, but again took up the position and its duties some five years ago; and during all the period that has elapsed since then he has diligently and painstakingly labored to guard and promote the interests of this institution and its stockholders.

His many years of active business had brought him a large acquaintanceship, and had developed a careful conservatism and discerning mind, possessions that particularly qualified him for the trying position of bank director, and made him a potent factor in the management of the many and important affairs of this corporation. His zeal for the bank was unflagging, his aim was her highest welfare, and his counsel was discriminating and wise.

Mr. Russell was always tolerant, kind and courteous towards his fellow directors, and was beloved and esteemed by us all; and in his death the community, the stockholders and this board have suffered a grievous loss, and it is with feelings of profound regret that we contemplate the fact that he can never again occupy his accustomed seat at this board.

WILLIAM LITTLE,
R. H. LANING,
C. T. KIRBY,

Committee on resolutions of respect to the memory of the late Chauncey S. Russell, member of the board of directors of the First National bank of Towanda, Pa.

DEATH ROLL OF A WEEK

Mrs. Tillie Welliver.

The death of Mrs. Tillie Welliver of Standing Stone township, which occurred on Sunday, Nov. 11, seems peculiarly distressing, and brings to light a human interest story which will appeal to mothers everywhere. Mrs. Welliver died from acute blood poisoning, which developed from a tiny scratch inflicted, through the merest accident by the baby fingers of her infant daughter. Mrs. Welliver had a cold sore upon her lower lip. Several days ago, romping with her baby, she picked the little form from the floor and tossed it above her head, holding tightly to the baby the while. With a pleased gurgle the child stretched its little fingers to its mother's mouth, touching the cold sore. A wound was made which developed sufficiently to cause the mother's death. Beside her husband, and her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Hill of Standing Stone, the deceased is survived by four small children. Funeral services were held at the house Wednesday morning at 10 o'cflock.

Emma L. Page.

Emma L. Page, of Athens, died on Tuesday morning of last week. She was born in Brinton, England, July 23, 1829. She came to this country with her parents in a sailing vessel, arriving in New York December, 1831, having been on the water seven weeks, enduring the privations and hardships of those times. From Baltimore they came by stage to what is now known as the Page farm near Milan which her father purchased of Theodore Loomis in 1832, the country at that time being a heavy timbered wilderness and wild animals roamed the forests. She lived on the homestead until the death of her father in 1876. Since then she made it her home with her sisters, except the past two years, during which time she has been an invalid and tenderly cared for the Misses Hancock.

Sarah Ann Williams Green.

The death of Sarah Ann Green occurred at her late home in Armenia township, on Thursday, Nov. 8. The deceased was born in Canton township in 1851, and was married 35 years ago to J. H. Green, living ever since on the old Connell farm. She had been in ill health for over a year and for six weeks had been confined to her bed in what proved to be a death struggle. The sufferer was conscious to the last, repeating just before she died, "All is well." Beside her husband, Mrs. Green is survived by two brothers and two sisters. ## Miss Hannah Powell.

Miss Hannah Powell, daughter of the late Hon. Joseph Powell, died at her home on Chestnut street on Saturday afternoon last, aged 33 years. The anonuncement of her death came as a shock to nearly all of our people, but few of them having heard of her illness. A constitution never rugged could give but little resistance to the disease which ran its swift course to the end. Miss Powell was born in Towanda and all her life has been spent among our people. Quiet and uneventful it has seemed to be yet in many ways it became deeply identified with the welfare of the community. In many directions had this gentle life become a positive force and by many will its untimely eclipse be sadly missed and mourned. Its influence was not confined to the wide circle of personal friends in which the sweetness and brightness of a singularly charming personality found its most frequent exercise, but in church and society, and especially among the sick, the poor and the distressed, did its gracious and kindly presence go, radiating sympathy and help. A mother and two sisters, Misses Henrietta and Mary, survive her. The funeral was at 2 o'clock home on Chestnut street and burial was in Oak Hill.

CONSTANT READER WELL REWARDED.

Troy Woman Learns That One Dollar Is Worth One Hundred.

Because she is "a constant reader" of her home newspaper, Mrs. Ernest Joraleman of Troy, has found that a gold dollar she had been given and which she mounted upon a stick pin is worth not less than $100. A coin expert, writing in the New York Sun, described the coin possessed by the Troy lady. The article was reprinted in the Troy Gazette-Register and seen by Mrs. Joraleman.

The dollar piece was coined in 1854 at the Charlotte mint and but three others were struck there, hence its rarity and value. This dollar has the liberty head on the obverse while all dollars minted in 1854 have on the averse an Indian girl's head with a jeweled coronet.

Mrs. Joraleman's dollar came to her as a gift about eight years ago. When she had it mounted on a stick pin it was not as many are, drilled but the connecting ring was soldered to the edge so the piece is in excellent condition. She did not know that it was as valuable as a fair sized diamond until she saw the article in her home paper.

According to State Superintendent Schaeffer's interpretation of school laws, any township that does not have a High school must pay tuition of students who have passed the district school and wish to enter a High school, even if the High school is in another county.

In Susquehanna county next year we elect a judge. President Searle closes his term of office and has announced his intention to retire, and will do so with one of the most notable records in the county's history. Already candidates are beginning to loom up.—Montrose Republican.

In anticipation of the annual convention of the State Firemen's association at Pittsburg next year the American Hose company, of Ashland, has organized a Pittsburg club. It has a good number of members, who pay monthly dues to defray the expenses when the time comes to go to the Smoky City.

A dispatch from Franklin, Pa., announces that the Standard Oil company will increase the salaries of 500 men, and it is done upon the strength of the election of the Republican ticket in Pennsylvania. Notwithstanding this evidence of the satisfaction of the Standard Oil company, Attorney General Moody is prepared to push vigorously his actions against the octopus.

Down in Montour county a poor man, a slater by trade, was nominated by the Republicans for sheriff. This was taken as a huge joke by all concerned. His opponent was a prosperous farmer who made a thorough canvas of the county. Williams started out on foot and buttonholed and talked with every voter he could reach in the county. He made friends with the young men, his slogan being "Di. Williams, the Slater, for sheriff." The joke was shifted on election day when Williams received a majority of over 400 votes.

There is apparently an end of the great Russian Revolution, which has failed from the want of any plans on the part of its leaders and from the apathy of a semi-barbarous and ignorant people. As a result of the failure, or reaction, long processions of chained victims are on the march from Holy Russia to the steppes of Siberia amid the seeming indifference of the peasants. Revolutions are not made by bomb-slinging and rapine, much less by resounding phrases about liberty and humanity. But the Russians have had a small concession to representative government in the Duma, and unless the Czar perjures himself there will be a new Duma. Untoward as are the existing conditions, it would be rash for the supporters of autocracy to predict that a new revolution will not arise.

NATION'S CENTRAL FIGURE.

Ever since the fact became patent that the election in New York state was so close as to make it doubtful for several days as to which candidates were elected, there have not been wanting those who declared the result of the election was a slap at President Roosevelt. Having observed this phenomenon, the Wilkes-Barre Record in no uncertain words, says what it thinks of the situation:

"Men in high position, especially in official position, are the targets of envy, of malice, of all manner of criticism. The shafts are hurled by those whose opposition rests upon a dishonest basis as well as those whose motives are true," says The Record. "Many a man has fallen, not because he has been weak, or in the wrong, but because the venom of the traducer and the blaring of the demagog were successful in undermining public confidence in him. When we realize the manner in which the searchlight has been turned upon every act of the great central figure in the nation today and the manner in which he has been compelled to run the gauntlet of villification and abuse, is it not a wonder that he has been able to come through the ordeal more firm in public esteem than ever before—more secure in the affection of his country-wide constituency?

"Theodore Roosevelt has braved the storm of opposition and has remained on the summit of greatness because he has had the good judgment to distinguish between the right and the wrong, and the courage to persist in fighting for the right in spite of every obstacle. When a few years ago it became evident that certain problems were pressing upon the nation with a dangerous trend, he went down to the root of the evils and outlined a plan of action from which he has not been swayed. He was full of it because he was sincere and determined. In written message and in speech he spoke as he felt, and gradually there was raised a sentiment in the popular mind that gathered force until it centered irresistibly about congress. The House of Representatives was more responsive than the senate, but before the close of the last session the senate became even more radical than the House.

The railroad act, the meat inspection, the pure food and drug act, the employers' liability act, are all legislation coming as a result of the agitation throughout the land which President Roosevelt fathered and for which he was chiefly responsible. Congress might have initiated legislation along the same line without the initiative from the White House, but it is not probable that it would have reached so satisfactory a sum total.

NOT PRESIDENTIAL TIMBER.

Some people, including President Roosevelt, believe that Hearst, even after his sound beating, is a presidential possibility. The New York Tribune, however, makes a more optomistic argument, which it presents in the following terms:

Minorities have a happy way in this democracy of acquiescing in the verdict of majorities, and that habit is the doom of Mr. Hearst. This election was not the triumph of one party over another. It was not the victory of one policy over another, for Mr. Hearst had no policy except unmeasured denounciation, which suggested destruction but committed him to nothing definite, while Mr. Hughes pledged himself to reform the very abuses against which his adversary clamored. As we said, there was one paramount issue, and that was Hearst. The verdict verifies that assertion. The people voted that Hearst was a dangerous man, unfit for office. The plurality of Mr. Hearst is not the measure of Mr. Heart's condemnation. In his own city, where he is best known and where his papers point with pride to his carrying all five boroughs, the Democratic candidate for governor ran over 60,000 behind the Democratic state ticket. That measures his repudiation by those of his fellow citizens who are best qualified to appreciate the sinister character of his public activities. Where his colleagues on the Democratic state ticket receive unprecedented plurality Hearst feceives a meagre one. On the basis of the figures in New York city any ordinary Democrat could have disputed the election with the Republicans on even terms. The proverbial "yellow dog" stood a chance, but not Hearst. He has demonstrated that he is the weakest Democrat in the state.

ANNUITIES FOR TEACHERS.

Two bills to pension public school teachers of Pennsylvania outside of Philadelphia, have been drafted by the committee appointed at a meeting of the educators of the state, at Harrisburg. One provides that the state shall appropriate and control a direct "retirement fund." The other provides that the separate school district throughout the state shall be authorized and overpowered to create a "retirement fund." The first bill provides that public school teachers who shall have taught not less than 30 years, the last 20 of which shall have been in Pennsylvania public schools, may be retired on annuity equal to one-half the average salary paid during the five years immediately preceding the date of retirement. If any teacher shall be re-employed as a regular teacher then the annuity shall cease, but after such employment ceases the annuity may be restored.

The Standard Oil company has been fined $5,000 in Arkansas, and it is generally believed it will be able to raise the money.

FRIENDLY TO THE PRESIDENT.

Labor is friendly to President Roosevelt and Commissioner of Immigration Sargeant, himself a member of organized labor, attributes the success of the Republican ticket in New York to Mr. Roosevelt's popularity with the workingmen. Mr. Sargent believes a lesson has been taught in this election that organized labor cannot be ignored, and in discussing the results he said:

Speaker Cannon has pulled through because the labor men in his district knew that while he differed from them on some important measures, yet on others he was loyal in his support. In the election of Hughes in New York it was the vote of labor that saved the day. I believe that Hughes received almost the entire vote of the men belonging to the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen, Trainmen and Engineers. The election has demonstrated one thing, and that is that it will not do for the politicians to ignore organized labor just because it happens that some men were saved through the personal popularity of the president.

Roosevelt's popularity was the one factor that made Republican success possible in Pennsylvania.

President Roosevelt has not changed the view he took of the situation in New York and that is that Mr. Hearst will remain a big factor in the Democratic party and loom up as a probable candidate for the presidency in 1908. Hearst's radicalism is not dead, and will figure in the next presidential contest.

CANNON WAS GOMPER'S MARK.

Gompers picked out Speaker Cannon as the particular object of his attack. Mr. Cannon wired to Washington Wednesday afternoon that his majority this year is 2,000 greater than it was in 1902, which was the last "off-year.' Mr. Dalzell, of Pennsylvania, was next singled out by Gompers and his organized labor leaders, and there the effort was more successful. Mr. Dalzell was re-elected, but his majority was cut away below what it ever has been since he first entered congress. Representatives Sherman and Payne of New York, and Mudd of Maryland, were also chosen as objects of labor's attack by Gompers. They have been re-elected. Organized labor seems to have been successful in defeating Representative Dale and Deemer of Pennsylvania, where the Democratic candidates were officials in the Mine Workers' union.

ONE MORAL IN THE STORY.

It's all over—even the shouting. But the business moral of the campaign should be permitted to soak into the minds of the business men who took part in it. If the victors had abandoned the field of publicity to their opponents during the canvass the result would have been reversed. Let your competitors do all the advertising and they will also do all the selling. You must tell your story to the public if you expect the public to take any interest in you. The majority of the newspapers throughout the state favored and argued for the Republican party and the result shows that the old term "power of the press" has lost none of its significance.

We hear of the cigarette fiend often, but none quite so bad are heard of as Tony Romono, an Italian, who died from the effects of too many cigarettes in the Carbondale hospital on Sunday. Tony frequently smoked over 150 "coffin nails" a day. He had abandoned himself to the habit to such a degree that his nervous system was completely paralyzed and his skin turned a dark yellow. When he retired at night he always placed a supply of cigarettes near his pillow, and when troubled with wakefulness would turn to them to put him asleep again. A short time ago he lost his employment because of the habit.

The returns from the various counties of this state as well as from the several states, show that in the independent voter has become a well-established institution of our happy land. The democratic governor of Minnesota was re-elected by a handsome majority, although the rest of the Republican state ticket was successful. The vote in several other states was equally erratic while the counties of this state present an interesting chapter for the inspection of the student of politics.

Out in Warren county a farmer has been wondering what animals were tramping his buckwheat crop into ribbons, but never learned the true inwardness of the matter until the other day when he discovered two deer disporting themselves there. He ran to the house after his gun, but fortunately the deer were wise little beasts and had disappeared by the time the farmer reached the field with his deadly weapon.

Congressman J. W. Wadsworth of New York, stood by the Beef Trust and against the president through thick and thin. As a result the people in his district refused to stick to Mr. Wadsworth though they did stick to Mr. Hughes. Hon. Peter Porter, who succeeds Wadsworth in the congress, has intimate friends in Towanda.

One of the surprising incidents of the election is the success of the Republican candidate for the legislature in Pike county. In the history of the county for nearly a century nothing like that has ever happened before.

Two Allentown young people who eloped are being hunted over the state by means of post card photos.

THE RESULT IN THE STATE.

Now that the election returns are all in the full scope of the Republican victory in this state can be reckoned. The Republicans have swept Pennsylvania by majorities exceeding the expectation of the most sanguine. Berry's plurality of 88,000 last year is reversed and Stuart has regained nearly all that was then lost. The incoming legislature will be overwhelmingly Republican, giving Governor Stuart full power to put in force those reforms and policies enunciated in the Republican platform, to which he so emphatically committed himself while stumping the state. He will have also full power and authority to investigate the "graft" charges in connection with the furnishing of the new state capitol. This he solemnly pledged to do before election, and since has repeated the promise. Interviewed concerning the result of the election, he said:

"I appreciate very much the great honor that my election as governor means, and also the responsibilities which it places upon me. I have nothing whatever to add to what I have already said in my speeches during the campaign throughout the state.

"I stand unreservedly on the platform of the Republican party adopted by the convention which nominated me. The party is irrevocably pledged to carry out those various reforms, and I will do everything within my power to see that these promises are faithfully kept.

"As regards the state capitol matter, I simply reiterate the language and promise made in my address at Erie, on Sept. 29 last, and subsequently repeated in every speech I made during the rest of my canvass in the various counties of the state."

The election returns indicate that a great majority of the Republican voters of this state accepted his words as a sufficient pledge that he meant what he said and will do all that he promised.

The success of the Republican ticket is ascribed to two reasons—the sterling honesty and popularity of Mr. Stuart and the general feeling among the majority of Republicans that a Republican defeat in Pennsylvania might be construed as an attack upon the National policy of the Republican party.

The result of the election affords the Republican organization an opportunity to make good the promises for better legislation and cleaner administration. Its pledges to do so are extreme and binding. Its platform calls for effective regulation of corporate abuses. Cheap and equal passenger rates, for the right of trolley roads to carry freight and for completion of reforms begun at the special session. These promises have been earnestly repeated on the stump. It remains for the Republican leaders and legislators to make them good. If they demonstrate their ability to do so the party will enter upon a new lease of power. If they fail the fight will go on with renewed energy and in the end it will succeed.

We are confident that Mr. Stuart will do all he has promised to do. His character and record are a guaranty of that, and he will have the cordial support of the new legislature in his efforts to do so. A majority of that body is already pledged to the reforms that were issues in the recent campaign and we predict that it will make a record that will justify the high hopes that these promises have raised. A new era, it is evident, has already begun in the politics of Pennsylvania and woe to the candidate, party leader or official who fails to recognize that fact.

THINGS IN CUBA.

There is now an army in Cuba flying the Stars and Stripes and clamoring for the annexation to the United States. The army is not very large. At last accounts it consisted of less than a hundred men, who had been dispersed once by an officer of American marines.

The most the United States wants of anybody in Cuba just now is to go home and go to work, and stop raising Cain. Uncle Sam can do the rest.

Cuba is headed this way easily enough, and will come of her own accord. There is no chance for the Cubans to do anything else. They are depending upon the United States for spot cash markets, and they need and want to reach those markets without paying duty. They are outside and sense the force of the phrase of "the foreigner pays the tax." They want to rub the figures off the slate, and if they are not disturbed at the work they will have a clean slate, and annexation will be accomplished in the course of a few months.

LEGALIZED BOSSES?

There is just this amount of good sense in Secretary Bonaparte's proposition for a legalized "boss," to be selected by the voters and to name the candidates of his party: The voters do much better in the selection of one or two officials than in the selection of a multiplicity. For this reason all the reformed city charters have increased the power of the mayor and decreased that of the multitudinous ward representatives. Texas in teaching us that the road to good city government is by means of a board of, say, five men selected by all the voters, instead of acity legislature of fift yor a hundred and fifty members elected by thirty or forty constituencies.

If the weather on election day was ever designed to bring out every last voter, including the invalid and the aged, it was Tuesday. The glorious sunshine was an invitation to go out, and the temperature made it a pleasure to stay out.—Philadelphia Record.

It seems to have been so fine that Mr. Emery decided to stay "out."

GOOD BRICK MATERIAL LOCATED NEAR WESTON.

Samples of Finished Product Exhibited to the Business Men.

At the October meeting of the Towanda Business Men's association matters of importance were brought up for discussion. Charles H. Rutty the contractor and builder, submitted several samples of brick, one of them being a heavy paving brick, made from material found near Weston Station on the S., and N. Y. railroad. Some months ago Mr. Rutty sent a quantity of clay and shale to Dayton, O., to be tested, and the samples secured and the accompanying letter are encouraging in the highest degree.

The materials, which are found in unlimited quantities, do not shrink in firing, and the finished bricks are very hard and of good weight. An effort will probably be made to interest capital in the formation of a company to develop the proposition.

BRADFORD COUNTY LAWYERS DISCIPLINE LEHIGH VALLEY.

Did Not Want It Known, But They Were Recompensed.

Several Bradford county lawyers, widely known in Towanda as well as in their home town, have succeeded in holding up the Lehigh Valley Railroad company for a sum of money amounting to several hundred dollars, because they were not allowed to board the Black Diamond express at this station. The details of the affair are made the subject of much good natured comment among those who are conversant with the facts of the case and an effort was made to keep the transaction as quiet as possible.

Although occurring some weeks ago, the story has just leaked out. It happened that several attorneys, having come to Towanda to transact business desired to leave during the afternoon, but there was no train except the Black Diamond, which did not receive passengers here for the station to which the legal lights wanted to go. It was ascertained that the train would stop here, however, so the gentlemen went to the station, bought tickets and tried to board the train when it pulled into the North Towanda station. The conductor refused to allow the party on board in accordance with the company's rules and his instructions, whereupon the lawyers drove back to town, talked the matter over and appointed one of their number to be a committee to write to the Lehigh officials and claim damages to the amount of several hundred dollars.

In due course the letter was written, and a few days ago, each of the lawyers received a letter enclosing a check, with an agreement that the proceeding should be stopped upon receipt of the check.

The demand was made against the company on the ground that a ticket purchased at the full rate entitles the holder to ride upon any passenger train, but the parties in the present deal expressed surprise that the company should have given up so quickly and easily.

JAMES GREEN HURT AT EAST TOWANDA.

One of Dolan's Foremen Struck By Dummy Locomotive.

James Green, an employe of John F. Dolan, the contractor, was seriously injured while engaged in directing a force of men near the roadway bridge, at 9:30 o'clock Tuesday morning. Green was struck by one of the little locomotives that carry the gravel dump cars to and from the steam shovels. Green lives in Myersburg, and is one of Dolan's best men.

Pinned by the engine against a pile of heavy timbers, Green received several bad bruises, and is feared to have been injured internally. Drs. T. B. Johnson and C. M. Woodburn were summoned and found Green in a semi-conscious state, suffering from shock. They discovered no broken bones and advised that the injured man be sent to his home in Myersburg, in a carriage, which was done.

Holiday Economy.

When the holiday season approaches, the retail merchants—those who advertise—add to their armies of salespeople and expand all branches of their service proportionately. But suppose the storekeepers should withdraw their announcements from the newspapers today, and suspend their efforts to gain publicity until after the first of the year—don't you think they would save a lot of money on their pay rolls? If you want to save money on your payroll, don't advertise. It costs a lot of money to handle the new business that newspaper publicity brings to the merchant who offers meritorious wares at reasonable prices.

It is reported that tramps are coming this way and are due here about that time.

Ordered Out of Waverly.

Because, it is claimed, she persisted in hanging around alleged disorderly places in Waverly, a woman claiming to be a Miss Hackett from Dushore, was arrested Saturday night charged with being a vagrant, and when arraigned before Justice Hoagland was ordered to leave that place. She said that she was related to wealthy people and that they would care for her, but that she preferred to work for herself.

Jailed for Desertion.

Lewis Skinner, a Lehigh Valley switchman, who lives in Sayre, was arrested there charged by his 17 years old wife with desertion and non-support. After a hearing before Justice Nelson, the young man was held to court upon $200 bail, which not being able to furnish, he was brought to the Towanda jail, to await the action of the grand jury.

Only One Divorce Thursday.

Judge Fanning Thursday decreed divorce in the case of Nydia Coleman against her husband, James Coleman.

BIG BLACK BEAR KILLED NEAR BENTLEY CREEK.

Big Party of Hunters Landed Bruin on Saturday With 19 Shots.

The second black bear to be killed in Bradford county within two weeks was shot on Saturday near Bentley Creek, Ridgebury township, and it took 19 bullets in his carcass to bring bruin down. His bearship weighed nearly 500 pounds and was a fine specimen.

The bear was first seen by B. B. Mitchell, Jr., of Troy, and Woodford May of Bentley Creek, who were out hunting. They summoned help and soon a number of hunters were in pursuit. The capture of such unusual game was the signal for the organization of a celebration and a parade and jollification was had.

Some two weeks ago a black bear weighing about 200 pounds was shot on the premises of Wilbur Kendall in Burlington township, and it is probable that the two bears started out from their original homes together.

WORK AT EAST TOWANDA.

Old Road Closed and New Road in Use—Overhead Bridge Nearly Done.

The work on the East Side has assumed a more definite appearance the past week and many of the new improvements will soon be completed.

The old river road leading toward the North has been closed from a point where the hill road goes up over the tracks and those wishing to go up the line must now travel on the new road which was completed last week. It runs along the side of the new railroad embankment and meets the old road near the curve of the railroad above the East Towanda station.

The trestle has been placed across the old road and dirt is now being dumped there to finish the end of the embankment to the railroad which will connect and complete the new curve.

The cut down through the Williams lot is being leveled off and graded in preparation for laying the tracks. A switch is already laid from down opposite the Lanning farm where the new steam shovel first commenced work up near the new overhead bridge and the gravel train which carries dirt from that shovel runs in on the switch. The track will soon be completed around the curve when the gravel train will be able to return on the new track. The East side of the cut is being scraped down and leveled up, the dirt from there is drawn to the South end of the new overhead bridge in dumps and used in making the grade from the bridge to the old road. There is a large fill here in order to make an easy grade, as to the new bridge is about 15 feet higher than the old roadway.

The overhead bridge is nearing completion, the iron work is all in and planks are being laid and when completed will make a very substantial structure. The bridge has two spans, a long one over the new railroad and a shorter one across the two old tracks. It rests on a concrete fundation at either end and the two spans come together upon a concrete abutment on which the iron supports rest. The floor of the bridge is supported by 6x12 inch joists on which are laid hardwood planks four inches thick.

The bridge will be open for travel in a few weeks and then the contractors will finish taking out the dirt in the old roadway where the high board fence now stands.

The iron girders for the overhead bridge near the covered river bridge are being placed in position in order that the standard gauge rails may be laid.

The date of the first move toward the new railroad embankment on the East side was March 24, when preparations were begun toward taking out the dirt near the East Towanda crossing for the switch where the tools were unloaded. And it was not until May 7 the steam shovel was taken from the switch and first put into operation beside the tracks.

Charles D. Passage, Jr., Has Bought Interest in Furniture Works.

Charles D. Passage, Jr., of Towanda, for the past few months with the Clark & Story Piano company at Pittsburg, has resigned that business and entered an altogether new field of enterprise. ## TRIAL LIST IS SMALL.

Sixteen Cases Listed for December Common Pleas—Thirty Pending.

The trial list for December term of common pleas court shows a most satisfactory state of affairs, there being but 16 cases listed for trial. There are 30 cases altogether now pending in this court. Of these six are ready for trial, and eight are pending for disposition before the judge alone; six of these last mentioned are the Ella M. Lane silk mill cases. It is understood that three or four railroad damage cases now on the list will be settled.

This is a most gratifying state of affairs for all concerned, and shows that both court and attorneys are using their utmost endeavors to forward the business of the courts.

Serious Runaway.

A fine, big team of horses attached to a lumber wagon, belonging to Ezra Stope, a farmer, from Oak Hill, ran away on Main street Friday noon and made such a wild charge that for a time it was feared that every horse along the street would join in the flight, and a panic ensue. The horses took fright in South Main street, while standing in the curb, and ran from near the Kinney House to the Tidd House, where they were stopped because they collided with the Quarry Glen Dairy wagon. The horse attached to this wagon was caught in the wheels of the heavy lumber wagon and dragged for some distance over the cobblestone pavement, and was badly injured, his legs being cut and torn in a shocking manner.

OVERTON NEIGHBORS CAN'T SEEM TO AGREE.

Adjourned Litigation Over Possession of Hall Taken Up Again.

The case of Joseph Francke of Overton, against D. F. O'Brien and other of his Overton neighbors, which was brought into court last Summer, and in which a settlement seems as far away as ever, is again up for trial in the main court room before Judge Fanning, and a sufficient number of witnesses remain to be called to make it probable that the case will consume considerable time today.

The trial was begun in the September term of court and is a case in which Francke, who is postmaster at Overton, charges four Overton men with forcible entry and detainer. The trouble grew out of a misunderstanding between the local lodges of Macabees and Grangers. Both of these orders shared a single hall, until last Summer, when the Macabees decided they needed a hall to themselves. The Grangers then, it is stated, entered into a contract with Mrs. Lancaster, an aged woman, to lease a part of the large building in which she made her home. Postmaster Francke is Mrs. Lancaster's son-in-law, and when he heard about the lease, he advised her to repudiate it and refuse the Grangers admission to the hall. Mr. Francke and D. F. O'Brien then tried to hold occupancy of the premises at one and the same time, which being obviously impossible, led to the consultation of counsel by each faction.

Attorneys Wilson and Maxwell appear for Francke, while S. H. Smith and John C. Ingham represent the defense. A great mass of evidence is being brought out by each side; the defendants Monday tried to show that the entire action should be a civil, instead of a criminal one.

Bronze Tablet Placed.

A beautiful bronze tablet was placed in the building of the Wyoming Historical and Geological society, in Wilkes-Barre on Nov. 2, in memory of Frances Slocum, "The Lost Sister of Wyoming." The tablet was placed by the members of the Slocum family upon the invitation of the Wyoming Historical and Geological society and is the first memorial erected to her in that valley, although a beautiful monument has been erected over her grave in the West. Nov. 2 was the 128th anniversary of the stealing of Frances Slocum by the Indians.

Veterans Violate Rate Law?

A curious point has arisen in connection with special rates for soldiers and the war department has formally asked the Interstate Commerce commission for a ruling as to whether it is or is not a violation of the rate law for the railroads to contract with the government for the transportation for soldiers at rates less than those granted civilians traveling in parties approximately as large as a company of soldiers. The question really is as to whether soldiers traveling singly or in parties of less than ten are entitled to be carried at the so-called soldier rate.

L. V. Brakeman Hurt.

James Greeney of Sayre, a brakeman on the Lehigh Valley railroad, sustained a fracture of his shoulder while at work in the Wilkes-Barre yards Thursday. He was employed on a freight train and in making up the train was thrown from the top of a box car.

Ellis—Minard.

The home of Mrs. Mary Minard, near Liberty Corners, was the scene on Wednesday evening, Nov. 7, of a very pretty wedding, when her only daughter, Miss Lena, was united in marriage with Bradford Ellis, of Franklin. The Rev. Mr. Loller of Monroeton, performed the ceremony.

Superintendent James Retires.

E. T. James, for several years past the efficient and well-liked superintendent of the Lehigh Valley's Sayre shops, has tendered his resignation to take effect within a few days. Mr. James does not announce his future plans, nor has the name of his successor been given out.

New Business Enterprise.

Believing that a good live field exists for such a venture, Charles Lindley will open a new five and ten cent store in Main street, next to K. D. Westbrook's store. Mr. Lindley is now in New York buying a complete and up to date stock.

BARRON FAMILY MAUSOLEUM FOR OAK HILL CEMETERY.

Handsome Piece of Work, First of Its Kind in Towanda.

There is now in course of erection in Oak Hill cemetery by the family of the late Charles H. Barron, a former merchant and resident of Towanda, a handsome marble and granite vault or mausoleum. The Barron plot is located at the Western side of the cemetery, at the top of the hill where it commands a magnificent view. When finished it will be the only structure of the kind in any Towanda cemetery. The children of Charles H. Barron who are interested in erecting the family memorial are William W. Barron, Mrs. Bertha Berthold, Mrs. Eleanor Ford, and Mrs. Joel Swift, all of New York city.

The material used in the construction of the tomb is quarried in Bedford, Ind., from where more than 50 tons of the granite has been brought. In addition to this marble will be used for the interior sides and doors. The weight of one stone alone, used in the roof of the vault is over four tons. The tomb is to be 12 feet 3 inches in length, 10 feet 10 inches in width, and 11 feet high, and the stone used is from 12 to 14 inches thick, many pieces being long enough to reach the entire length of the vault. Each of the stones is so fitted as to make the structure practically one solid piece of stone. A concrete base of about five feet was laid as a foundation.

Within the vault are six catacombs or niches for the reception of coffins, and in the center of the floor will be erected a bier upon which will rest the remains of the mother of the family. There is to be one window in the West end, and the doors of marble will be protected by iron railings.

R. L. Scheuffler, the Towanda granite and marble dealer, has the contract for erecting the tomb, and the work will require four or five weeks.

UNTRUTHFUL VOTING MACHINES.

Refused to Record Republican Ballots In Chemung County.

It is now conceeded by prominent members of both parties in Elmira that serious defects existed in the voting machines used there in the recent election. At a meeting of representatives of both parties held Saturday night, it was agreed that a differance of nearly 400 votes would be discovered when the machines are taken apart and examined by experts. It has not been as yet openly charged by either side that the voting machines were deliberately tampered with by any person previous to election day, but it is believed that the examination and investigation which is to follow, wil reveal that the entire Republican ticket received a number of votes that were not recorded or counted.

In Chemung county, of which Elmira is the seat, Hearst was given a big vote, and so strong was the Democratic sentiment that both Congressman J. Sloat Fassett and Assembly Leader Sherman Moreland of Van-Etten, both Republicans, had tight work to squeeze through. It is believed that the investigation of the defective voting machines will demonstrate that both these candidates received more votes than are now apparent in the count. The official count has not yet been made.

Barn Burned Monday Night.

A telephone message on the Independent line brought information on Monday that a large barn at Evergreen, belonging to John Allen, was burned to the ground shortly after 7 o'clock. The blaze was discovered in time to rescue, with some trouble and risk, all the live stock, except one colt, which was destroyed. The loss is placed at about $2,000. No reason is advanced as to the origin of the fire.

HUGHES WINS BY SIXTY THOUSAND

But Democrats Probably Get All Other State Offices In New York.

KNIFE USED ON HEARST.

He Runs Far Behind His Ticket In New York City.

BRUCE MAY BE RE-ELECTED

But Split Ballots Appear to Put Republican In Governor's Chair at Head of a Democratic Administration. Hearst Carries Greater New York by 76,946, His Running Mates by 134,000 to 145,000.

New York, Nov. 7.—Revised returns, some of them based on estimates, indicate the election of Charles Evans Hughes as governor by 60,000 plurality, but the rest of the Republican state ticket was probably defeated, though M. Linn Bruce may squeeze into the lieutenant governorship by a narrow margin.

Hearst was unmercifully knifed by Democrats in New York city. He ran about 65,000 behind the Democratic state ticket below the Bronx.

Mr. Hughes came down to the Bronx with a plurality of 136,000. Mr. Hearst carried all five boroughs of Greater New York. His plurality in Manhattan and the Bronx was 63,320; in Brooklyn, 4,833; in Queens, 7,898; in Richmond, 682. This gave him 76,946 in the greater city, which Herrick carried in 1904 by 80,131.

Lewis Stuyvesant Chanler's plurality in Greater New York is 134,940. He ran 57,984 ahead of Hearst.

Whalen, Democratic candidate for secretary of state, has a plurality of 139,317 over O'Brien in Greater New York.

Jackson, Democratic nominee for attorney general, has carried Greater New York by about 141,440 plurality.

Hauser, Democratic candidate for state treasurer, has a plurality of 141,399 over Wallenmeier, Republican, in Greater New York. He ran 64,673 ahead of Hearst in the greater city.

Skene, Democratic candidate for state engineer, has a plurality of 144,-

LEWIS STUYVESANT CHANLER.

188 over Van Alstyne in the city. He runs 67,462 ahead of Hearst.

Glynn, Democratic candidate for comptroller, has a plurality in the greater city of 141,402 over Lewis, Republican.

It is apparently unlikely that the Republican state ticket, with the exception of Hughes, can show a plurality above the Bronx to overcome its opponents.

Mr. Hearst's plurality in New York city was offset by the tremendous Republican vote up the state. The manufacturing centers stuck to the candidate of the Democratic party and the Independence league.

But in the rock ribbed counties the old time Republican majorities were rolled up. Hearst carried only two counties up the state—Schoharie and Chenung. He reduced the pluralities in many of the counties, such as Monroe and Schenectady, although the city of Schenectady was a disappointment to the Hearst managers, who had expected to carry it by several thousand.

All told, Mr. Hearst carried only six of the sixty-one counties of the state, the two up the state and four counties that go to make up the greater city.

Hearst Carries Buffalo by Thirty.

In the city of Buffalo the election was one of the most remarkable on record. Hearst carried the city by 30 votes in a total of 50,000 votes cast. He carried Rochester by 731, Troy by 140, Binghamton by 136. He also carried Elmira and Corning. Hughes carried Schenectady by 650, Utica by 40, Syracuse by 4,800 and Oswego by 4,100.

NEW YORK LEGISLATURE.

It Is Republican by a Safe but Reduced Majority.

Albany, Nov. 7.—There is a safe Republican majority in the new legislature. The lead is reduced, but the majority is still heavy. There will be one additional senator as a result of the recent reapportionment. Kings county gained two assemblymen, Queens one, Erie one, Monroe one and Westchester one, while Albany, Onondaga, Rensselaer, Cattaraugus, Cayuga and Broome each lost one.

The present senate has thirty-six Republicans and fourteen Democrats, but the new senate will have thirty-two Republicans, seventeen straight Democrats, one independent Democrat and one Independence leaguer.

The assembly will be composed of ninety-nine Republicans. There are at present 107 Republicans and forty-three Democrats in the assembly and fifty-one Democrats and Independence league men. The majority of the Independence league men come form New York and Brooklyn districts.

"Eight Hour Tom" Rock was beaten by Thomas F. Grady in the Fourteenth senate district. Very few of the old timers were returned to the senate. Louis F. Goodsell, who has represented Orange county in the upper house for several years, was defeated by an independent Democrat. Senator McCarren was re-elected in the Seventh district.

RHODE ISLAND DEMOCRATIC.

"Boy Mayor" of Pawtucket Defeats Utter For Governorship.

Providence, R. I., Nov. 7.—James H. Higgins, the "boy mayor" of Pawtucket (Democrat), defeated Governor George H. Utter (Republican) for re-election by a plurality of 1,238, according to complete returns compiled by the Providence Journal. The rest of the Republican state ticket was elected.

All of the towns heard from have sent solid Republican delegations to the general assembly, blighting the hopes of the Democratic-Lincoln party nominee, Colonel R. H. I. Goddard, candidate for the United States senate to succeed George Peabody Wetmore. Big Democratic gains are shown, but the legislature seems safely Republican in both branches.

Democratic mayors are elected in Woonsocket and Providence.

Defeated by His Hired Man.

Winstead, Conn., Nov. 7.—Professor M. I. Pupin, Columbia university instructor and inventor of the ocean telephone, was defeated in Norfolk for the legislature by his hired man, Matthew O'Brien, a stonemason, by sixteen majority. The vote stood: O'Brien, 172; Pupin, 156. The other successful candidate for representative is also a Democrat, Warren Corbally, a coachman. Laborers voted against Professor Pupin because they said he brought workmen from San Francisco to toil on his large country estate. O'Brien worked hard to defeat his employer, taking a day off. Professor Pupin did no electioneering.

PRINCE LOVES GROCER'S GIRL

Will Give Up Title and Income of $1,200,000 a Year to Marry Her.

Berlin, Nov. 13.—Court circles are shaken by the announcement that his royal highness Prince Eberwyn of Bentheim and Steinfurt is to give up his title and his princely income of $1,200,000 a year to wed a grocer's pretty daughter.

Prince Eberwyn became infatuated with Fanny Koch, daughter of a tradesman in a small provincial town, and declared his intention to marry her. His father, Prince Alexis, and the other members of his family did their utmost to dissuade him, pointing out that the laws of their princely house would compel him to renounce all the honors to which he was born. Prince Eberwyn was obdurate.

Thereupon a family council was summoned, and Prince Eberwyn in their presence formally renounced his birthright. He took a solemn oath never to dispute the right to his younger brother, Prince Victor, to succeed him as hereditary prince and head of the family at his father's death. Simultaneously he was compelled to resign as lieutenant of the Prussian bodyguard.

His sacrifice involves the right of succession to many thousands of acres of land and an income that is estimated to amount to $1,200,000 annually. The wedding will take place next week.

Croker Coming Over Next Month.

New York, Nov. 13.—Richard Croker, Jr., will sail for England on Saturday to accompany his father to New York. It is expected that Mr. Croker will arrive in America the latter part of the first week in December. His friends assert that his coming has no political significance.

STUART BEATS EMERY

Regular Republicans Carry Pennsylvania by 75,000.

SURPRISE IN PHILADELPHIA

Gibboney Elected District Attorney. Keystone Democrats Gain Five Seats In Congress—Two Mine Workers Chosen to National House.

Philadelphia, Nov. 7.—The reform movement in Philadelphia and throughout Pennsylvania, inaugurated last year as a result of the Philadelphia gas lease fight, received a severe blow in this election. The latest figures show that everywhere in the city and the state the fusion party opposed to the regular Republicans was either badly defeated or had its last year's vote greatly reduced. Edwin S. Stuart of this city, the Republican candidate for governor against Lewis Emery, Jr., the fusion nominee, ran very strong everywhere, and his plurality may reach 75,000. Last year the fusionists carried the state for state treasurer by a plurality of 88,000. In Philadelphia Stuart ran ahead of his ticket and carried the city by a plurality of 32,328. The figures for governor in this city are: Stuart 123,493, Emery 91,165. Allegheny county, which includes Pittsburg, gave Stuart an estimated plurality of 28,000.

EDWIN S. STUART.

Robert S. Murphy for lieutenant governor, Robert K. Young for auditor general and Henry Houck for secretary of internal affairs, the other candidates on the Republican state ticket, were also re-elected by pluralities snightly under that of Stuart.

Rotan District Attorney.

The unexpected result of the election in Philadelphia was keenly felt by the Reform party. The principal fight in the city was made for the office of district attorney, and it was one of the bitterest in the political history of the county. The leaders of the City party, which had effected fusion with the Democrats and Prohibitionists on the local ticket, felt certain that D. Clarence Gibboney, their candidate for district attorney, would win, but the figures show that Samuel P. Rotan, his Republican opponent, carried the city by 12,124. The Republican candidates for city treasurer and register of wills were also elected by about the same plurality.

Incomplete figures from the thirty-seven congressional districts of Pennsylvania indicate that the Democrats gained five congressmen, which will make their delegation in the next house six instead of one.

Two Miners Elected to Congress.

The next legislature will remain heavily Republican, although the Democratic and reform representation will be larger.

A notable feature of the campaign was the success of the United Mine Workers of America, which organization entered the political field for the first time in this state. The latest figures show that the miners will be represented in the next congress by two of the officers of the organization and in the legislature by about a half dozen members of the union, all of whom were candidates on the Democratic ticket. The miners' representatives in congress will be William B. Wilson, international secretary-treasurer, and Thomas D. Nicholls, district president of the upper anthracite coal field.

"Newsboy" Candidate Wins.

Baltimore, Md., Nov. 7.—Maryland's delegation in the Sixtieth congress will be three Republicans and three Democrats, proportionately the same as at present, but with a change in two of the districts. Harry B. Wolf (Dem.), popularly known as the "newsboy" candidate, defeated his Republican opponent, W. W. Johnson.

Only 500 Chicago Women Voted.

Chicago, Nov. 7.—There are put 500 women in all Chicago who took sufficient interest in the election to cast their ballots. That means that for every 520 men who voted there was one woman. Apparently there is little in the showing upon which advocates of woman's suffrage can base future arguments.

Republicans Take South Dakota.

Fargo, N. D., Nov. 7.—Late state returns show that Sarles, Republican, is elected governor by a safe majority.

Fish Out of Illinois Central.

New York, Nov. 7.—J. T. Harahan was elected president of the Illinois Central railroad in place of Stuyvesant Fish. All the other officers of the company whose terms expired were re-elected. All of the directors of the company were present except Vice President Welling.

GENERAL SHAFTER DEAD.

Major General MacArthur to Take Charge of His Funeral.

Washington, Nov. 13.—Official notice of the death of Major General Shafter reached the war department from Major General MacArthur, commanding the Pacific division, who will take charge of the funeral arrangements if desired by the family, without any orders from the department.

Major General William R. Shafter was born at Galesburg, Mich., on Oct. 16, 1835. He enlisted at the beginning of the civil war as a first lieutenant and rose in rank steadily. At the close of the war he was brevetted brigadier general of volunteers for gallant and meritorious service and received a congressional medal of honor. He entered the regular army in 1867 as a lieutenant colonel.

When the war with Spain broke out Shafter was a brigadier general commanding the department of the Columbia. He was chosen by Secretary Alger to command the expedition into Cuba. During the investigation of the war after its close General Alger stated that General Shafter had been assigned to the command of the expedition on the suggestion of General Miles. To this General Miles replied that his recommendation was only intended to cover a small expedition and that he had expected himself to command the main expedition.

In the army, where General Shafter had an excellent name and was highly respected as one of the best regimental commanders the army has ever had, his selection was received with great surprise, largely because of his physical incapacity. In the field General Shafter's physical disability and great weight told against him. He only once visited the firing line during the battle, and on this occasion he had to be lifted on his horse by several officers and enlisted men.

In an address before an audience in Morganstown, W. Va., Rear Admiral Sampson made the statement that General Shafter allowed his army to run away from him in Cuba because he was incapable of properly commanding it.

General Shafter wisely declined to enter into any controversy over the Cuban campaign. He said he was ordered by President McKinley to take Santiago and drive out Admiral Cervera's fleet and that he did it and that the result of the campaign before Santiago was the best evidence of his abilities as a commanding officer.

TWO DIE IN FIRE.

Fatal Conflagration at Port Chester Believed to Have Been Set.

Port Chester, N. Y., Nov. 13.—Two men lost their lives in a fire which destroyed Weeks' hotel, on Adee street, at an early hour. The fire is believed to have been of an incendiary origin. No arrests have yet been made.

The men burned to death were William O'Brien, thirty-six years old, a bricklayer, and William Kane, thirty-three years old, a bricklayer, of Rahway, N. J. The men occupied rooms in a two story frame addition in the rear of the main building. It was under this smaller structure that the fire started. Mrs. Charles Weeks, her twelve-year-old daughter and her father, William Bushwine, seventy years of age, were carried out in a half suffocated condition. They were revived.

City Ownership Fails.

St. Louis, Mr., Nov. 13.—The city of Kirkwood, a fashionable suburb of St. Louis, having found its venture in municipal ownership rather costly, will close down its municipal lighting plant and buy light and power from a private company for just one-third what it cost the city to manufacture it. Kirkwood built its lighting plant at a cost of $25,000, five years ago, and since that time the city lighting has cost 41 cents a kilowatt. Moreover, the city still has $23,000 in bonds out against the plant which is to be closed down.

Metcalf Finishes Frisco Inquiry.

San Francisco, Nov. 13.—Secretary of Commerce and Labor Victor H. Metcalf, who was sent to San Francisco by President Roosevelt to investigate the exclusion of Japanese children from the schools attended by whites, has concluded his work and will depart for Washington to make his report. Secretary Metcalf declined to say what conclusions he had reached or to make any statement until he has made his report to the president.

To Move on Standard Oil Soon.

Washington, Nov. 13.—Attorney General Moody held a final conference with Messrs. Morrison and Kellogg and Mr. Purdy, assistant to the attorney general, on Standard Oil matters. While all concerned are reticent as to the action to be taken, there is no longer any doubt that suit will be entered within a few days against the Standard Oil Company of New Jersey under the Sherman antitrust law.

HOUSE IS REPUBLICAN

That Party Retains Control of Congress by Reduced Majority.

SPEAKER CANNON RETURNED

Also Nicholas Longworth—Wadsworth Falls by the Wayside—Socialist Wins Seat In Illinois Delegation—Democratic Gains In Many States.

Washington, Nov. 7.—The Republicans will retain control of the house of representatives in the Sixtieth congress by a large though decreased majority. With nineteen districts to hear from the returns show the election of 212 Republicans and 155 Democrats.

The most sanguine prediction put out by Chairman Sherman previous to the election was that the Republicans would retain control of the house by fifty. The majority in the Fifty-ninth congress is 112.

As the returns stand now the Democrats have gained twenty-one districts held in the present congress by Republican, as follows:

Illinois, 2; Indiana, 1; Iowa, 1; Missouri, 4; Nebraska, 1; New Jersey, 1; New York, 1; North Carolina, 1; Ohio, 3; Pennsylvania, 5, and Wisconsin, 1.

In Illinois the defeated Republicans are Reives and Dickson of the Twenty-first and Twenty-third districts; in Indiana, Cromer of the Eighth; in Iowa, Lacey of the Sixth; in Missouri, Fulkerson of the Fourth, Ellis of the Fifth, Welborn of the Seventh and Caulkins of the Fifteenth; in Nebraska, Kennedy of the Second; in New York, Wadsworth of the Thirty-fourth; in New Jersey, Pickett of the Ninth; in North Carolina, Blackburn of the Eighth; in Ohio, Douglas, who beat Grosvenor for the Republican nomination.

Babcock Beaten.

In Wisconsin Babcock gives his seat to a Democrat; in Pennsylvania, Dale of the Tenth, Palmer of the Eleventh and Samuel of the Sixteenth.

The Republicans gained the Third Kentucky district, where A. D. James defeated Representative Richardson. This is the only Republican gain so far reported.

Speaker Cannon received his usual 15,000 majority and comes back to congress for the seventeenth time. The fight against Representative Dalzell of Pittsburg was futile, as Mr. Dalzell is re-elected with a reduced majority. Mr. Wadsworth, who is chairman of the house committee on agriculture, was defeated by Peter A. Porter, who announced himself as an independent Republican and attacked Mr. Wadsworth's record on the meat inspection legislation. He was indorsed by both the Democrats and Independence league.

Nick Longworth Re-elected.

Nicholas Longworth, son-in-law of President Roosevelt, was re-elected to congress in Ohio by a reduced plurality despite the efforts of organized labor to defeat him.

One Socialist was elected in Illinois.

Witte Returning, Gets a Frost.

St. Petersburg, Nov. 13.—The arrival of Count Witte here created scarcely a ripple in Russian politics. In contrast with his reception after his return from Portsmouth, when a throng gathered at the railroad station to greet him and the street in front of his house was blocked the following day by the carriages of high personages coming to pay their respects to the man of the hour, the count was met at the depot only by Baron Alde and a few reporters.

Beautiful Terrorist Gets Ten Years.

Moscow, Nov. 13.—A daughter of General Benevsky, ex-governor general of Amur province, has been condemned to ten years at hard labor for participation in the plot to kill ex-Governor General Dubassoff. Mlle. Benevsky's hand was blown off while preparing a bomb. Mlle. Benevsky, who is only twenty-four years old and beautiful, was married while in prison to another political prisoner.

Conscripts Refuse to Take Oath to Czar

Moscow, Nov. 13.—During the swearing in of conscripts here disorder broke out, over half of them refusing to take the usual oath of loyalty to the emperor on account of the phrase pledging them to defend his majesty against all interior enemies. Troops were summoned, but bloodshed was finally averted.

Terrorist Falls Off a House.

Moscow, Nov. 13.—The police have identified the man who threw a bomb at General Rheinbot, the prefect of police, as a terrorist named Mazury. A revolutionist, supposed to be Mazury's accomplice, was killed by falling four stories while trying to escape from the police over housetops.

Ninety Revolutionary Peasants Killed.

Kitau, Courland, Russia, Nov. 13.—A punitive expedition which has been operating in the Kreutzberg district during the last few weeks killed ninety revolutionary peasants belonging to an organization termed the Forest Brothers, who levied tribute on the surrounding country.

Castro Can't Recover.

Willemstad, Island of Curacao, Nov. 13.—The latest advices received here from Caracas confirm previous reports to the effect that President Castro's illness is approaching a climax and that his physicians believe it is impossible for him to recover. The Venezuela rebel leader Montilla is again in arms, has twice defeated government troops and has threatened to pillage the town of Barquisimeto. Serious disturbances, it is still asserted, are feared in case of Castro's death.

TO FISH BY WIRELESS.

Operators Will Locate and Report Menhaden Schools.

New York, Nov. 13.—Now the fish in the sea are to be brought within the ken of the wireless telegraph, and if the plans of the American Fisheries company, which operates the menhaden fisheries along the Atlantic seaboard, go well it will not be safe for a fish to show its fin above water anywhere near the coast from Florida keys to Cape Cod.

The company has decided to install wireless apparatus on board its steam yacht, the Mindora, and its fishing steamboats, the Walter Adams, the Alaska, the J. Lawrence, the Joseph Wharton and the Arizona. Wireless observers of the company which owns the system will be instructed to keep a sharp lookout from their coast towers for schools of menhaden and when a likely strike is in adjoining waters send out a hurry call for the fishers and their nets.

Then, too, when the fish are plentiful one boat can call for help, and the extra catches are expected to more than compensate for the cost of the service.

BAN ON WOMEN CANDIDATES

Colorado Politicians Will Name No More of Them.

Denver, Nov. 13.—Leaders of the Democratic and Republican parties have made an agreement to put a ban upon women as candidates for public office.

They say they are in touch with public sentiment and that suffragists and equal rights partisans are unpopular.

Four women ran for the house of representatives recently. Three of them were on the Democratic ticket and one on the Socialist ticket. All were defeated by decisive majorities.

Politicians assert that equal suffrage in Colorado is rapidly becoming a farce in spite of assertions to the contrary, and that the rank and file of citizens, women included, wish the fair sex eliminated from politics.

In 1897 there were three women members of the legislature, in 1899 four women members and in 1903 only one woman.

HUGHES WEARS A RED HAT

Doesn't Mean to Be Mistaken For an Adirondack Deer.

Camp Kilkare, N. Y., Nov. 13.—If there are any deer in the Adirondacks they do not hang around Camp Kilkare. "We have got on lots of tracks," said M. Linn Bruce apologetically, "but they were like some of those we struck just before election. They turned out to be wrong ones."

Mr. Hughes takes his exercise on the main road leading from Raquette Lake to the camp, which he traverses halfway and back. In view of the fact that there are so many persons scouting around who are more conversant with knives and forks than guns, precaution is taken by Mr. Hughes to wear a bright red cap as a danger signal. Mr. Hughes does not care for hunting, which has proved to him so far that it is purely a waste of time.

Cures Woman's Weaknesses.

We refer to that boon to weak, nervous, suffering women known as Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription.

Dr. John Fyfe one of the Editorial Staff of THE ECLECTIC MEDICAL REVIEW says of Unicorn root (Helonias Dioica) which is one of the chief ingredients of the "Favorite Prescription":

"A remedy which invariably acts as a uterine invigorator * * * makes for normal activity of the entire reproductive system." He continues "in Helonias we have a medicament which more fully answers the above purposes than any other drug with which I am acquainted. In the treatment of diseases peculiar to women it is seldom that a case is seen which does not present some indication for this remedial agent." Dr. Fyfe further says: "The following are among the leading indications for Helonias (Unicorn root). Pain or aching in the back, with leucorrhœa; atonic (weak) conditions of the reproductive organs of women, mental depression and irritability, associated with chronic diseases of the reproductive organs of women; constant sensation of heat in the region of the kidneys; menorrhagia (flooding), due to a weakened condition of the reproductive system; amenorrhœa (suppressed or absent monthly periods), arising from or accompanying an abnormal condition of the digestive organs and anæmic (thin blood) habit; dragging sensations in the extreme lower part of the abdomen."

If more or less of the above symptoms are present, no invalid woman can do better than take Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, one of the leading ingredients of which is Unicorn root, or Helonias, and the medical properties of which it most faithfully represents.

Of Golden Seal root, another prominent ingredient of "Favorite Prescription," Prof. Finley Ellingwood, M. D., of Bennett Medical College, Chicago, says:

"It is an important remedy in disorders of the womb. In all catarrhal conditions * * * and general enfeeblement, it is useful."

Prof. John M. Scudder, M. D., late of Cincinnati, says of Golden Seal root:

"In relation to its general effects on the system, there is no medicine in use about which there is such general unanimity of opinion. It is universally regarded as the tonic useful in all debilitated states."

Prof. R. Bartholow, M. D., of Jefferson Medical College, says of Golden Seal:

"Valuable in uterine hemorrhage, menorrhagia (flooding) and congestive dysmenorrhœa (painful menstruation)."

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription faithfully represents all the above named ingredients and cures the diseases for which they are recommended.

During the period of drought in the southwestern states the cattle browse upon cacti as a forage plant. The coarse, sharp spines are a drawback, but the removal of these by burning them off means in the end the destruction of the plant.

About the only kick any farmer can have coming this fall is that the bumper crops he has raised have pulled pretty heavily on the land. We have known fellows so constituted that it would be perfectly natural to expect this wail from them.

The process of seed dissemination is worthy of one's attention. Running water, winds, birds, animals, people and stock trains all assist in scattering the seeds abroad, and weed seeds travel just as well as any other kind.

Much of the work in connection with horticulture can be done in the fall as well as the spring. This is mostly in the line of cleaning up and preparing the soil for the new season. It can be done more thoroughly at this time, as you are not so rushed with other work.

The amount of food and water given to a dairy cow affects the quantity of the milk given rather than the quality. As the cold weather comes on see that bossy has good warm quarters, as her coat is thin and her circulation not overvigorous, and she needs what help she can get to withstand the cold.

Passing by an open barn the other day we were particularly struck by the neatness of it. The floor had been swept, things were hung up, and there was a general shipshape order about it all. Too many times the barn is made a repository for all the old truck that one does not know what else to do with.

The people of this country consume 100,000,000 pounds of prunes annually. Prior to 1886 the supply came almost wholly from France and the Danubian provinces, while today more than enough to satisfy home consumption are grown in California, the output of Santa Clara county alone being better than 110,000,000 pounds.

People always wonder a little when a girl buys land and makes money. The reason why we don't hear of more is because the average girl hasn't the opportunity. Even though she might be so inclined to brave the rough life of the claim or ranch, her friends, if not her parents, would veto the plan. It isn't for lack of ambition or enthusiasm.

A farmer we know of a somewhat thrifty turn of mind has this year raised quite a crop of turnips along the roadside running past his place. While from the standpoint of appearance such a crop may not look as attractive as a sward of blue grass or clover, it is certainly preferable from every point of view to a wilderness of weeds, which all too often adorns the public highway.

Too many times our interest in the raspberry, blackberry and currant bushes wane with the passing of the fruit, and the rest of the season they are left to grow at will and choose their own companions or have them thrust upon them. Many patches seen lately are so entangled with vines and weeds as to be hardly recognizable. The weeds are in fine condition to grow next season.

Much of the boom literature of the day is too flowery for its own good. It prejudices the popular mind quite as much against a new locality as it does in its favor. Facts are what the people want—plain, unvarnished facts. Don't pull up until you know what is ahead of you just because you happen to receive one of these attractive little pamphlets. It may be simply a bait to lure you and your money into some mining speculation or land deal.

A man went to town the other day with a load of squashes—nice ones they were, too—and he was naturally eager to sell. He rushed up the steps of a good looking house and rang the bell with much gusto—in fact, rang it three times before the lady could get to the door. When she came the squashes were offered, but he met with a somewhat firm refusal. The lady had lost what interest she may have had in squashes before she could get to the door. It was evident that the farmer was unused to doorbells. A great deal depends upon how you approach a person sometimes.

The uniformly smooth and fine appearance of the potatoes which the writer is digging this fall is ample reward for the pains required in treating the scabby seed with a formaldehyde solution before planting last spring, while two sprayings with bordeaux solution and paris green fixed the bugs, kept the blight in check and resulted in a greatly increased yield. Equipment for treating the seed in case it is scabby: A pickle or vinegar barrel and a gunny sack, and some kind of a spraying apparatus should be at the disposal of every gardener and farmer who makes a business of raising potatoes.

Now is the time to be not only thinking about but also getting out the storm windows where they can be brushed and cleaned ready for putting up. You can recall the miserably cold time you have had in getting them ready after the cold weather is in full swing.

A difference of several degrees in temperature and also the amount of money which goes out of your chimney in smoke will be realized this winter if your house is nestled in among the trees, out of the wind. A windy, drafty house is not only hard to heat, but a mighty uncomfortable place to live in.

The day of the old fashioned buckwheat cake is passing. In its place comes one of much lighter hue and of different flavor. This is due in great measure to the reducing of the buckwheat flour with wheat flour. While many people prefer the lighter cake, they also prefer to do their own adulterating.

In many places brown eggs are considered more choice than white ones, but it depends a good deal upon the fancy of the consumer. But regardless of the fancy of the buyer it pays to sell only fresh eggs, be the size large or small. Many farmers reserve the best eggs for the regular customers, taking the surplus to the store.

The opinion used to prevail that land wasn't much good if it didn't grow trees, but this idea has had its day along with a good many other foolish ideas. Today the finest country we have is found in the prairie region, and much time and expense are saved in clearing the land. If the soil is not fertile enough to grow trees the matter is an entirely different one.

The scarcity of labor over the country is beginning to have disastrous effects on some of the southern industries, some of the cotton mills being compelled to sell not more than 80 per cent of their average output simply because labor is so scarce that there is no prospect that there will be more than enough help to operate the mills beyond 80 per cent of their capacity.

A north Iowa reader of this department writes inquiring if redtop may be sown with advantage in the fall—disked in on oat stubble. We know of no good reason why it should not. A number of instances have come under our notice where timothy was disked on stubble in the fall and produced an excellent stand the next season, and we believe redtop would do equally well.

Spraying experience of the past season has proved beyond question that the earlier treatments are by all odds the most valuable in checking the apple scab and damage from codling moth. So far as we can see, the fruit on the trees which were given thorough sprayings just before the blossom buds opened and just after the petals fell is just about as sound as that on trees which were also given the two later sprayings.

There is not sufficient validity in the goose bone and muskrat house prognostications of the old fashioned weather prophet so that one would be justified in making provisions for any less than the usual amount of food and fuel for the coming winter. If a fellow lays in fuel supplies adequate for the coldest winter and has some left in his bin when spring comes it is certainly a good omen, and he has that much at least to be thankful for.

A wind break is one of the first things to consider when one is thinking of engaging in fruit raising. This is as necessary for the smaller varieties of fruit as well as the orchard. The character of the wind break should depend somewhat upon how extensive one's operations are to be. A thick hedgerow of evergreens or stretch of woodland is best and will serve to keep out the severer currents of air as well as keep in the necessary moisture.

We have on our home lawn a Winter Aport which this year bore a bushel of very handsome apples. The fruit is a bright russet red in color, very uniform in size, a trifle smaller nosed and somewhat longer than the Wealthy and as yet too hard to be good eating. The apple is of good quality, being pleasant to the taste and of firm texture. Although in blue grass sod, the tree seems to be hardy and vigorous and all in all gives promise of being a useful winter variety.

Professor Hansen of the South Dakota Agricultural college is now in Europe looking for fruit which may be cultivated on the wind swept prairies of his home state. Some years ago Professor Hansen made a similar trip as a result of which he introduced the drought proof brome grass, which has proved a boon in many semiarid localities. He also introduced a number of varieties of fruit which have seemed well adapted to the northern states. On this trip he will take special pains to visit Siberia and secure samples of her hardiest shade and fruit trees, grasses and grains. The South Dakota station with which Mr. Hansen has been connected has done the agricultural interests of the west and northwest an immense service by encouraging and assisting in the introduction of better methods as well as improved and hardy varieties of wheat and other grain.

THE FARMERS' INSTITUTE.

In all the more progressive and wideawake agricultural districts of the country the farmers' institute is a fixture and has come to be reckoned as one of the most practical and valuable aids in disseminating up to date information touching the operation of the farm and its kindred interests. Including in its scope, as it does, the field, the stock yard, the poultry yard and the household in its many aspects, the institute is of value to every member of the family. As soon as the date of holding this meeting is set the work of the farm should be so arranged that all of sufficient age can attend, and nothing of trivial character should be allowed to prevent the carrying out of this plan. Go not only with the idea of getting some benefit from the sessions, but of contributing something to them along the line of valuable facts and information. Your going will thus have a double value, and your state of mind will be analogous to that of the old deacon who rated as the best prayer meeting he had ever attended one in which, though sparsely attended, he himself had prayed and testified. The best farmers' institutes we have ever known have not been those in which the scheduled speakers occupied all of the time, but which were agricultural experience meetings participated in by the rank and file of the audience present. Arrange your work so as to attend your home county institute and go with the idea of making the most possible of it for yourself and your neighbors.

DRAWN AND UNDRAWN POULTRY.

Notwithstanding that considerable prejudice has developed against the sale of undrawn poultry during the past twenty months, largely due to several instances of poisoning resulting from poultry that was kept for too long a time in cold storage in this condition, a recent bulletin issued by the chemist in chief of the agricultural department at Washington gives a very emphatic verdict in favor of marketing poultry in the undrawn rather than the drawn condition, this judgment being the result of a carefully conducted experiment. Two turkeys, one drawn and the other not, were hung up on the 5th of February. At the end of a week it was found that the drawn bird was tainted, while the other was in perfect condition. Four days later both birds were cut open, it being found that the drawn bird was in a bad state of decomposition, while the one undrawn was still in an excellent state of preservation. A practical recommendation contained in the bulletin was to the effect that poultry should under no circumstances be killed for market unless it had been kept from food for the preceding twenty-four hours, as the presence of partly digested food in the body tended to increase decomposition very greatly. So strongly was this point emphasized that it was suggested that a law be passed imposing a heavy fine for putting poultry on the market in this condition. The points touched upon should be noted by every shipper of poultry.

A BIG LEAK.

The quality of butter which is made in the creameries of the dairy sections of the country, whether gathered cream or separator concerns, could be greatly improved if all the patrons would take the precaution of giving all utensils used in the handling of the milk a thorough scalding and sunning wherever the latter is possible. The collective indifference and carelessness of a body of creamery patrons are beyond question responsible for the loss of hundreds of dollars through the resulting inferior quality of the butter product. Multiply the annual butter output of any creamery by from 1 to 5 cents and one has in cold figures the loss that is sustained as a result of the slovenly handling of milk and cream. Suppose the loss is 2 cents per pound. With the average rural creamery whose summer output is 10,000 pounds a week the loss resulting from this one cause would be $200, or enough to pay the wages of a first class buttermaker for two months. One cannot make a whistle out of a pig's tail; neither can the best buttermaker on earth remove from cream the taint that is imparted through careless handling and produce a butter product that will fetch top notch prices. In nine cases out of ten where returns for butter sold are not up to what they might be the trouble may be remedied by scalding the milk cans rather than scolding the buttermaker.

PAPER FROM COTTON FIBER.

After a long series of experiments the president of the Southern Cotton association comes forward with a statement to the effect that all qualities of paper from the finest linen grade down can be profitably manufactured from the fiber of the cotton stalk, which has hitherto been a waste material. It has also been found that in the process of manufacture several valuable byproducts are secured, including alcohol, nitrogen and material for smokeless powder. It is expected by those directly interested that several of these new paper plants will be in full operation by the first of the new year. Since the stalks average a ton for every bale of cotton grown, this would make available 12,000,000 tons of raw material annually, which is twice as much as would be needed by all the mills of the country at the present rate of consumption. It is to be hoped that when the industry develops on a large scale it may prove all that its promoters now anticipate, for it would not only render valuable a hitherto waste product, but would greatly lessen the enormous drain upon the spruce forests of the country, which at present furnish the bulk of the material for the manufacture of the cheaper grades of paper.

The Shopping Sex.

The Englishwoman never knows when she enters a shop what she wants. She is swayed by impulse, grabs wildly at everything she likes or thinks she likes and probably comes back and grumbles the next day. She is also completely lost if the shopwalkers do not dog her every footstep to implore her to "look at this charming toque" or condescend to "glance at this special line in cheap skirts." But the American woman resents any suggestion that she does not know what she wants, likes to be left severely alone and if interfered with may abruptly leave the shop. But, while she is less irritating than the Englishwoman, she is far more exacting.—London Express.

EAST TROY.

Pattern For an Apron of Unusual Style Designed by Martha Dean—No. 4089.

Mothers who are looking for something in apron styles which are just a bit different from those the little daughter has been wearing ever since she became big enough to wear pinafores will appreciate the design shown. The apron is in sack style, but tucked in yoke outline so as to overcome any tight fitting effect in front, which so many mothers object to. A unique collar is another desirable feature, as is also the sleeve frill, which may or may not be used. The design is a good one to follow for a princess model by extending the embroidery from the front at either side of the tucks. This model has none of the earmarks of the ready made and will find many admirers who want something new and original. The medium size calls for two and a half yards of thirty-six inch material. No. 4089, sizes, 4 to 12 years.

PENNSYLVANIA PERSEVERENCE.

Tyrone Man, Determined to Recover His Own, Hunts Down Thief.

The team of black horses stolen from S. S. Stanley, the Tyrone liveryman, and which he traced to this place two weeks ago, and for which the local officers joined the search, as well as the Sayre and Athens authorities, have been found and the thief arrested. The team had been driven nearly 400 miles, and were returned to Tyrone from Cleveland where they were captured by the city police who also arrested the thief, Harry Sheets, a notorious character of Berlin, Somerset county. When Sheets got to Cleveland he sold the harness and buggy to a suburban liveryman for $10 and the man who witnessed the sale telephoned police headquarters about it. The Cleveland police arrested Sheets on suspicion, and on looking up the records found that he was wanted at Berlin for embezzlement, and at Reading, Berlin and Greencastle for horse stealing. They also found Mr. Stanley's card in their office and communicated with the Tyrone liveryman.

In the meantime the Somerset county sheriff went to Cleveland and brought Sheets back to the Somerset jail, a place he was not unacquainted with. Mr. Stanley went to Somerset and there duly identified Sheets as the thief, and then he went on to Cleveland where he recovered the horses. One horse is in good shape, but the other is in very bad condition. Mr. Stanley will appear against Sheets in the Blair county court.

S. S. Stanley, the determined owner of the fine team, won the friendship of all with whom he came in contact in Towanda, and turned strangers into eager aides in his behalf. Arriving here on Sunday, he went briskly about getting posters printed and sent broad cast over the country, and it was through a Towanda-printed hand bill which had been posted in Cleveland that the team was finally recovered. Constable G. C. Hollon became so much interested in Stanley's case, that he spent the best part of a day tracing a clue, refusing to take payment from the Tyrone man, who seemed ready to spend twice the value of his horses, to catch the thief.

Charles N. Swain a Winner.

After one of the most spirited political contests ever known in Asbury Park, N. J., Charles N. Swain, Democrat, formerly of this place and Troy, and well known in the county, was elected councilman of the second ward of that city by a majority of 15 over his opponent. There are 1,804 votes in the ward and to win Swain had to overcome a Republican majority of 300. His success was attributable not only to personal popularity and untiring activity, but his advocacy of important measures affecting the welfare of the city contributed largely to the result. Swain is prominent in Monmouth county politics. Many Bradford county friends will be glad to hear of his success.

Serious and Unusual Accident.

While eight years old Mark Brown of Hector, near Westfield, was in the woods cutting a hickory limb with which to make a bow and arrow, the limb broke unexpectedly and the knife was plunged into the boy's right eye, allowing nearly all of the contents of the anterior chamber of the eye to run out. A Westfield physician was able to fix up the optic so that only a small scar is visible and the impairment of sight is slight. Recently Gorden Macklin of Westfield, met with an accident almost exactly similar.—Wellsboro Gazette.

SATURDAY NIGHT WAS BUSY TIME FOR POLICE.

Eleven Arrests Were Made, "John Barleycorn" Being Responsible.

Saturday night and the early hours of Sunday morning were busy times for the local police officers. About 10 o'clock a Mrs. Casselbury made complaint that her sister, Susie Welch Pettus, had threatened to kill her with a knife. Thomas Welch made a complaint charging an Italian with assaulting his wife by spitting in her face, and also charged Timothy and Nellie Howard with conducting a disorderly house. Chief Miller, Officer Benedict and Constable Hollon repaired to Plank Road street, the scene of hostilities. They found Susie Welch very drunk. At the Howard house the Italian was found, and he drew a gun, but was quickly handcuffed. Timothy and Nellie were too much overcome to be moved, but Susie and the Italian were committed for a hearinf Monday.

A few minutes later the police called the officers to South Main street. "Monkey Face" James Vanderpool had been ejected from the Arlington hotel, and he retaliated by hurling two stones through the glass of the entrance. He was captured by Officer Eddy.

On top of this a report came of a disturbance by Italians on upper Bridge street. Miller and Hollon repaired to the house of Jasper Smith and took into custody Smith, his wife and five Italians. The men were anxious to go to work next morning, so Burgess Foyle was aroused at 1:30 and held court. Smith and his wife were assessed $4 each and given a week in which to find the money. The Italians paid $3 each. In default of a fine Vanderpool was given 30 days in jail.

While the court was in session a telephone call from the residence of B. T. Hale on South Main street, reported the capture of a burglar. Mr. Hale returned on a late train and found Frank Dickerson of the First ward prowling on his porch.

In the meantime fights were in progress in Mason alley and on South Main street, but there was nothing doing when the police arrived there.

DR. KENNEDY'S FAVORITE REMEDY

Breaks no Hearts, Excuses no Crimes.

Dr. David Kennedy's FAVORITE REMEDY is not a disguised enemy of the human race; where it cannot help, it does not harm. It is composed of vegetable ingredients and does not heat or inflame the blood, but cools and purifies it. In all cases of Kidney troubles, Liver complaints, Constipation of the Bowels, and the delicate derangements which afflict women, the action of Dr. Kennedy's FAVORITE REMEDY is beyond praise. Thousands of grateful people voluntarily testify to this, in letters to Dr. Kennedy; and with a warmth and fullness of words which mere business certificates never possess. It makes no drunkards—excuses no crimes—breaks no hearts. In its coming there is hope, and in its wings there is healing. We challenge a trial and are confident of the result. Your druggist has it. ONE DOLLAR a Bottle. Bear in mind the name and address: Dr. David KENNEDY, Rondout, New York.

BIGGEST BALLOT FRAUDS.

Startling State of Affairs Unearthed in Luzerne County.

In the progress of the official count of Luzerne county ballots at Wilkes-Barre the fact was disclosed that more than 2,000 fraudulent votes were returned in the seven districts of Foster and Hazle townships, and that more corruption was practiced at Tuesday's election than ever before in that county.

As a result some of the candidates who have been practically sure of election find themselves in doubt and will not know where they stand until the official count.

The four judges on the bench directed that the guilty parties be brought to justice, and in the meantime the count was laid aside. Those under arrest as a result of the stand taken by the court to purge the election are Michael Burns, Timothy Ryan, Patrick, William and Frank Gallagher, who were the election board of the Ninth district of Hazle township, charged with fraud, forgery and misdemeanor as election officers. The bail was fixed in $1,000 each for appearance at criminal court.

Bench warrants were issued for the arrest of the judges of three election districts in Foster township, one in Butler township and one in Hanover township for contempt of court. Warrants are also out for 'Squire McKelvey, of Hazle township, for violating the election law, and for Simon Newburger, a prominent merchant of Freeland, charged with being implicated in th etheft of the ballot box in Foster township.

Several ballot boxes were opened in the presence of the court and they were found to contain less than one-fifth of the number of votes returned and on the registry list. In other cases the boxes had been tampered with, and one is said to have contained only a few pebbles.
